Dimensions should not exceed 60" in any direction for 2-D work. If your work requires special care in hanging, please make arrangements to assist.

Other Limitations:

- All work must be appropriately framed and securely wired to hang. No saw tooth hangers. If you have questions about framing, please email info@lknart.org.
- Work must be the artist's original creation, not exhibited in a previous Lake Norman Art League exhibit. Work must be dry.
- The decision to reject any work will be at the sole discretion of the Lake Norman Art League. *The Lake Norman Art League reserves the right to limit award amounts if necessary due to number of entries.
- If your work cannot be hung on the wall, you must bring your own display equipment at take-in. Please contact us in advance of take-in to let us know about this.

Publicity/Reproduction Rights:

The Lake Norman Art League reserves the right to photograph and publish any work for publicity or promotional purposes. No compensation is provided for this use.

Liability:

The utmost care will be used in handling all work. The League carries specific insurance coverage that protects the art. However, if damage or theft occurs outside of our insurance coverage, the Lake Norman Art League, 442 S. Main, and volunteers assisting will not be responsible.

Exhibit Judge: Noyes Capehart

Noyes Capehart (Long), is affiliated with The Collectors Gallery in Raleigh and Carteret Contemporary Art Gallery in Morehead City. In addition to being an accomplished artist, he is also an accomplished writer, having completed numerous short stories, four novels, and a novella. He recently released The Private Diary of Noyes Capehart, a body of visual works completed during 1970- 2005, most of which incorporate written components of some kind. "Put simply, it is a blend of visual and written content that has allowed me to fashion a meaningful dialogue with self, a way of processing a host of experiences, thoughts, and feelings that have come with my life's journey."

Born in Nashville, Tennessee, Noyes received his undergraduate in Illustration from Auburn University and graduate in printmaking from The University of Missouri. Starting out as a guard at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, he soon began a long teaching career with positions at Auburn, U of Missouri, U of Mississippi Oxford, and App State where he retired in 1997.

In 2008, a film crew from UNC-TV filmed and interviewed Capehart for a planned Our State segment on my Private Diary Series, which later went on to win an Emmy. For more information, visit his website at <http://www.capehart.org>.
